

I. BACKGROUND:

President Barack Obama signed the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) into law on July 22, 2014. WIOA is designed to help job seekers access employment, education, training, and support services to succeed in the labor market and to match employers with the skilled workers they need to compete in the global economy.

Sections 129(c)(1)(A), 134(c)(2)(A)(iii), 134(c)(2)(B), 134(c)(3)(A)(iii) of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act identifies the minimum service for an individual seeking services through the American Job Center.

II. PURPOSE:

A key service provided in the workforce development system is the initial assessment of a participant's knowledge, skills, and abilities to support that participant's employment goal. The initial assessment determines needs and strategies to achieve sustainable employment; furthermore, training and supportive services are based on an analysis of information gathered from the participant during the intake process. The assessment should indicate what services the participant needs and should include, if necessary referrals to appropriate partner staff and other agencies that can best provide these services. The intake process may include the use of registration information, a resume, data collection, and/or the customary verbal interview. A thorough initial assessment will provide sufficient information about the participant's current situation which staff will use to create a service plan. Assessments must be conducted with each participant to determine their needs, goals, and services to be delivered.

III. INSTRUCTIONS:

a. Initial Assessment - The initial assessment allows Service Provider to determine the necessary information to determine knowledge, skills, and abilities to support the participant in achieving their eligibility and employment goals.
